

BEA Union Investment China A-Share Equity Fund

As at 31 July 2018

- BEA Union Investment China A-Share Equity Fund (the "Fund") invests in emerging markets may be subject to higher liquidity and volatility risks. While the Fund invests in a particular market or sector may be subject to higher concentration risk than funds following a more diversified policy.
- The Fund may enter into futures contracts and currency forward contracts for hedging and investment purposes. Given the leverage effect embedded in futures and currency forward contracts, the Fund may be exposed to significant losses.
- The Fund will invest at least 70% of its assets in China A-Shares, primarily through a QFII which is subject to applicable regulations imposed by the PRC authorities, including among others, repatriation restrictions, which may subject the Fund to significant liquidity risk. In addition to the use of the QFII quotas, direct exposure to certain eligible China A-Shares can be achieved via the Stock Connects, which is subject to different risks, including quota limitations, clearing and settlement risk. Investment in the Fund involves significant risks relating to the PRC, including, among others, emerging market risks, social, political and regulatory risks. Given the significant risks associated with investing in China A-Shares, the Fund may be exposed to significant losses.
- The Fund may be subject to the risks associated with changes in the PRC laws and regulations, including PRC tax laws, and such changes may have retrospective effect and adversely impact the Fund. The manager currently intends to make provisions for any PRC taxes payable by the Fund on (i) interests from RMB Bonds and (ii) dividends derived from PRC Equity Securities (including China A-Shares acquired through the Stock Connect), at a rate of 10%, if the relevant tax is not withheld at source. Such provisions may be excessive or inadequate to meet the actual tax liabilities. In case of any shortfall between the provisions and actual tax liabilities, which will be debited from the Fund's assets, the Fund's asset value will be adversely affected.
