

BEA Union Investment China Phoenix Fund

As at 31 October 2018

- BEA Union Investment China Phoenix Fund's (the "Fund") investments are concentrated in China. This may result in greater volatility than portfolios which comprise broad-based global investments.
- The Fund invests in China shares (including China A-, B- and H-Shares), Renminbi denominated corporate and government bonds, securities investment fund and warrants listed on the China stock exchanges and may be subject to withholding and other taxes imposed in China. Direct exposure to China A-Shares can be achieved via the Stock Connects, which is subject to different risks, including quota limitations, clearing and settlement risk. Investing in China involves a greater risk of loss than investing in more developed markets due to, among other factors, greater political, tax, economic, foreign exchange, liquidity and regulatory risks.
- In terms of currency hedged class units, adverse exchange rate fluctuations between the base currency of the Fund and the class currency of the currency hedged class units may result in a decrease in return and/or loss of capital for unitholders. Over-hedged or under-hedged positions may arise and there can be no assurance that these currency hedged class units will be hedged at all times or that the manager will be successful in employing the hedge.
- Investors may invest in RMB (Hedged) units. It should be noted that the RMB is currently not a freely convertible currency as it is subject to foreign exchange control policies of the Chinese government. There is also no assurance that the RMB will not be subject to devaluation. Any devaluation of the RMB could adversely affect the value of investors' investments. There is no guarantee that the hedging strategy will be effective and investors may still be subject to the RMB currency exchange risk.
- The Fund may enter into futures contracts for hedging and investment purposes. Given the leverage effect embedded in futures contracts, the Fund may be exposed to significant losses.
- Investors should not make an investment decision based solely on this material.
