

Important note:

1. BEA Union Investment Asia Pacific Multi Income Fund (the "Fund") seeks to achieve income and long-term capital growth by investing in an actively managed portfolio of debt securities, listed REITs, and other listed securities in the Asia Pacific region.
2. The Fund is subject to general investment risk, equity market risk, asset allocation risk, Asian market concentration risk, emerging market risk and currency risk.
3. The Fund invests in debt securities and is subject to risks in interest rates, credit/counterparty, downgrading, below investment grade or non-rated securities, volatility and liquidity, valuation and sovereign debt and credit rating risks which may adversely affect the price of the debt securities.
4. The manager may at its discretion make distributions from income and/or capital in respect of the distributing classes of the Fund. Distributions paid out of capital amount to a return or withdrawal of part of the unitholder's original investment or from any capital gains attributable to that original investment. Such distribution may result in an immediate reduction of the net asset value per unit.
5. In terms of currency hedged class units, adverse exchange rate fluctuations between the base currency of the Fund and the class currency of the currency hedged class units may result in a decrease in return and/or loss of capital for unitholders. Over-hedged or under-hedged positions may arise and there can be no assurance that the currency hedged class units will be hedged at all times or that the manager will be successful in employing the hedge.
6. RMB is currently not a freely convertible currency as it is subject to exchange controls and restrictions. Non-RMB based (e.g. Hong Kong) investors are exposed to foreign exchange risk and there is no guarantee that the value of RMB against the investors' base currencies (for example HKD) will not depreciate. Any depreciation of the RMB could adversely affect the value of investors' investments.
7. The Fund may use financial derivative instruments for hedging and investment purposes which may not achieve the intended purpose and may result in significant losses. Risks associated with derivative instruments include counterparty/ credit risk, liquidity risk, valuation risk, volatility risk and over-the-counter transaction risk.
8. Investors should not make an investment decision based solely on this material.

BEA Union Investment Asia Pacific Multi Income Fund ("APM")

Markets in the region generally performed well in November

Highlights:

2. Value and cyclical rotation trade supports the region's performance
3. The Fund continued to position in higher yielding names

Fund Features

- The Fund focuses on high yielding Asia Pacific bonds and equities, distributions from both bonds and equities are the main source of income.

Market Review and OutlookBonds

- With the confirmation of Biden's victory in the U.S. Presidential Election and the prospect of COVID-19 vaccine kickstarting has repeatedly boosting market risk sentiment. Indonesia corporate and property names outperformed the most driven by their attractive yields, improving commodities prices and good home sales.
- The Asian local bond markets were trading mixed in November and reacted more on their respective central banks' stance. Indonesia market outperformed as Bank Indonesia cut rate by 25bps in November meeting and hints more cut to come going forward.
- Asia credit spread continues to grind tighter in November with positive vaccine news. India and Indonesia outperformed the most in terms of spread.

Equities

- Asian equities trended up in November led by South Korea, ASEAN and Australia. South Korea market's strong rally was on the value and cyclical rotation trade via the Energy, Financial and Material sectors on the back of improved sentiment from Biden's victory and COVID vaccine progress.
- ASEAN markets recorded its best monthly performance for the year. The region's performance was led by foreign fund inflows into emerging markets, on the back of the value rotation trade with banks leading the way.
- Markets continue to look toward to the reopening of economies but remain volatile amidst geopolitical risks and trade negotiation.

Investment Strategy

Bonds

- The Fund's increased exposure to bonds with high beta and longer duration as global risk sentiment improves.
- The Fund will stay low in cash level, given the near-term inflow to the emerging market and a more cleared economic revival scenario globally. The pricing in Asia high yield credit has been well chased and certain names have exceeded their peak before the pandemic.

Equities

- In view of softer global growth and profit taking towards year-end, we remain cautious and barbell the portfolios with high quality names exhibiting strong earnings visibility that will be supported by structural growth.
- The Fund continues to position into higher yielding names, mainly in Australia and Singapore; especially those able to make strategic acquisitions in current environment.
