

Important note:

1. BEA Union Investment Asian Strategic Bond Fund (the "Fund") seeks medium to long term capital growth and regular income by primarily (i.e. at least 70% of its non-cash assets) investing in debt securities that are (a) denominated in Asian currencies, or (b) issued or guaranteed by Asian governments or entities which are incorporated in Asia or have significant operations or assets in, or derive significant portion of revenue or profits from Asia, and denominated in USD or other currencies including Asian currencies.
2. The Fund invests in emerging markets and may be subject to higher liquidity and volatility risks.
3. The Fund may invest in below investment grade or non-rated debt securities, which are subject to greater credit and liquidity risks than higher-rated securities.
4. The manager may at its discretion make distributions from income and/or capital in respect of the distributing classes of the Fund. Investors should note that the distributions paid out of capital amount to a return or withdrawal of part of the unitholder's original investment or from any capital gains attributable to that original investment. Such distribution may result in an immediate reduction of the net asset value per unit.
5. In terms of currency hedged class units, adverse exchange rate fluctuations between the base currency of the Fund and the class currency of the currency hedged class units may result in a decrease in return and/or loss of capital for unitholders. Over-hedged or under-hedged positions may arise and there can be no assurance that these currency hedged class units will be hedged at all times or that the manager will be successful in employing the hedge.
6. RMB is currently not freely convertible and is subject to foreign exchange control policies of the Chinese government. Non-RMB based (e.g. Hong Kong) investors are exposed to foreign exchange risk and there is no guarantee that the value of RMB against the investors' base currencies (for example HKD) will not depreciate. Any depreciation of RMB would adversely affect the value of investor's investment in the Fund.
7. The Fund may use derivative instruments for hedging purposes which may not achieve the intended purpose and may result in significant losses.
8. Investors should not make an investment decision based solely on this material.

BEA Union Investment Asian Strategic Bond Fund ("ASB")

Monetary Policies Remain Accommodative

Highlights:

- 1. Monetary policies are expected to remain accommodative globally
- 2. The Fund adopts a more defensive position for Asian investment grade bonds
- 3. Oil price spike boosts Chinese oil bonds

Fund Features

- The Fund adopts flexible allocation in Asian investment grade / high yield bonds, diversifying into different Asian countries, sectors, and currencies.
- The Fund invests not more than 50% in Asian high yield bonds in general conditions.
- Mainly invests in corporate bonds which tend to be less sensitive to rate hike cycle.

Market Review and Outlook
Review of Interest Rate Market

- The easing cycle of Asian central banks prevails, Indonesia and the Philippines cut their policy rates by another 25 basis points, and the People's Bank of China cut the RRR (Reserve Requirement Ratio) by 50 basis points in September.
- We expect monetary policies will remain accommodative globally and bond yields will stay low on the challenges of global growth and geopolitical uncertainties.

Asian Investment Grade Bonds

- In September, the credit spreads of Asian investment grade bonds widened near the month end. Buying activity has slowed down during the month as investors looked to trim positions towards the year end.
- We expect higher beta names will become more volatile due to hefty supply of new issuance and investors take a more defensive positioning.

Asian High Yield Bonds

- In September, overall Asian high yield bond market stabilized following the weakness seen in August. Investor sentiment was supported by rate cuts in a number of countries and the resumption of meetings between U.S. and Chinese officials.
- In terms of sectors, Chinese oil names outperformed as a result of oil price spike, while the remaining Chinese industrial sector was hit by idiosyncratic risk.

Investment Strategy

- We adopted a more defensive position for the Asian investment grade bond portfolio. The Fund remains slightly overweight in duration while underweight its allocation to Hong Kong and China.
- In terms of Asian high yield bonds, the Fund reduced higher beta names in India and Indonesia. It will position modestly defensive and maintains a slightly lower level of higher beta and longer duration bonds in view of the tightening onshore liquidity restrictions on the Chinese property market and evolving development of the trade talk.
